

DeaDea Harper

October 1, 1967 - February 8, 2015

DeaDea Harper, 47, of DeRidder, Louisiana entered eternal peace on Sunday, February 8th, 2015 in Alexandria, Louisiana. She liked to paint, flowers and country music but her one true love was her family. She will always be remembered for her many skills and big heart.

Those left to mourn her loss and cherish her memory are her mother, Dianna Evans of Beaumont, TX; father, Don Lewis of Sibley, LA; one son, Robert McCurley of Orange, TX; three daughters, April Cronin of DeRidder, LA, Kasey Smith of DeRidder, LA and Halei Harper of DeRidder, LA; one sister, Nikki Freeman of Beaumont, TX; three grandchildren, Waylon, Sophia and McKenzie; four nephews "Four Texas Tornadoes", Cameron Casinger, Ryan Bodley Jr, Brandyn Bodley and Maleik Bodley and numerous extended family and friends.

A visitation will be held at Hixson Funeral Home in DeRidder, LA on Saturday, February 14th, 2015 from 5:00pm until 7:00pm.

Comments

“ Mom,

I miss you so much! Words can not explain how I feel with out you here. You kept every thing going and you just don't know how much things has changed since your leaving. I want you to fly high, and I know one day I'll see you again. Waylon and I love you mom.

Halei Harper, DeRidder, Louisiana - September 19, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ She made you smile, even on your darkest day. She will be missed.

Tina Johnson, DeRidder, Louisiana - February 17, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ Heartbroken over the loss of DeaDea, remembering all the younger years when we saw each other. Forever in our hearts she will be. So vibrant, outgoing, and friendly. Fly with the angels until we meet again sweet loved one. We love you Daine and family. God has her in his keeping, we will forever have her in our heart.

Doyle and Pauline Birdwell, San Augustine, Texas - February 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM